

MY ENGLISH notebook SURVIVAL GUIDE

COVER:

Your first and last name should be visible in the top right corner of your notebook cover. Your cover may have a design as long as the name is clearly visible, for grading purposes.

DGP:

Each DGP page entry should have the following to receive full credit:

1. The DGP week labeled at the top (i.e. "DGP Week 1")
2. The sentence rewritten for each exercise: Parts of Speech, Sentence Parts and Phrases, Sentence and Clause Types, and Capitalization and Punctuation.
3. Each individual exercise completed in its entirety

VOCAB:

Each vocabulary unit should follow the DGP exercises assigned in the same week. For example, Unit 1 Vocabulary must follow DGP Week 1 activities. Students must have the following to receive full credit for vocabulary each week:

1. The assigned terms printed and/or written out
2. The assigned exercises/activities completed

JOURNALS:

Each journal entry should have the following to receive full credit:

1. The prompt rewritten at the top of the page
2. The date recorded in the top right corner
3. A response at least half a page in length (single-spaced)

SMART GOAL

RECORDS:

Each week, students are expected to complete at least one entry regarding the overall progress or experience with their SMART goal. Each journal entry is worth 10 points, totaling 150 of the 200 possible project points.

I have read and understand what is expected of me. I will meet these requirements to the best of my ability.
